

Mahā Mr̥tyunjaya Mantra

OM tryambakaṃ yajāmahe sugandhim puṣṭivardhanam
Urvārukamiva bandhanān-mṛtyormukṣīya māmṛtāt

We invoke and do homage to the three-eyed Lord [Shiva], creator and protector of the three worlds, whose immanent fragrance of energy and bliss enhances the life and joy of existence all three times. O Rudra, destroyer of evil and suffering, giver of bliss, release me from the bonds of mortality like the ripe melon falling off the stalk and redeem me into the infinite presence of Immortality.

Bāgalāmukhi Mantra

OM Hlrīm Bāgalāmukhi sārva duṣṭānaṃ vāccāmukhaṃ pādaṃ stāmbhāya jīvām kilāya buddhiṃ vināśāya hlrīm OM Svāḥ

Oh Goddess, paralyze the speech and feet of all evil people. Pull their tongue, destroy their intellect.
